Any student wishing to tryout and participate in any middle school sport is required to have a physical prior to the first day of tryouts. ALL athletes are encouraged to have their physical performed during the summer, even those athletes participating in winter and spring sports. If you have your personal physician perform the examination, be sure to use the Archdiocese form which will be online at http://www.sacatholicschools.org/organizations/body_aial.htm Click document/archives.
